Enjoy Breakfast before setting out on a full day packed with amazing experiences.

Travelling through the picturesque midlands, passing favourite fishing spots, and possibly snow as you climb into the centre of Tasmania to view artist Greg Duncan's stunning creations.

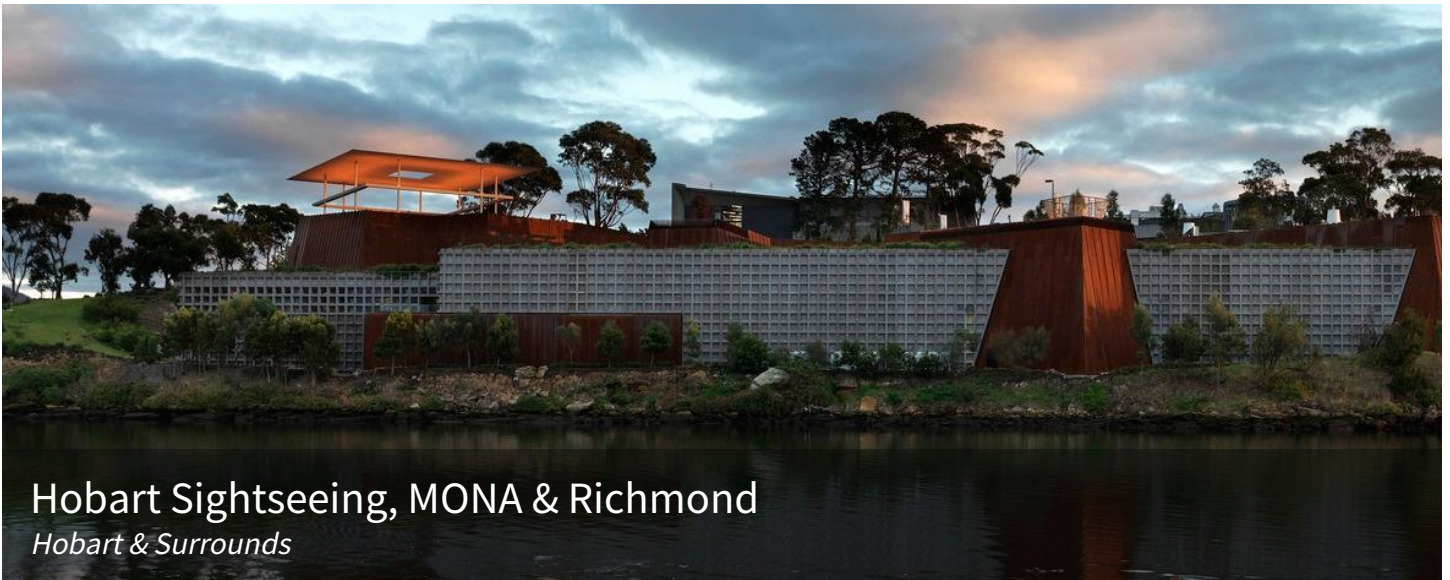

The three-metre high wooden carved panels tell the history of the harsh Central Highlands history. It is 100 metres long and a true Tasmanian icon.

A local pub experience with a roaring log fire before returning to Hobart via small townships and perhaps a visit to local antique shops just to tempt you.

After breakfast we are ready for another road trip - this time to the Huon Valley. With 80% of the island's apple production coming from this region, it has earned the affectionate nickname of The Apple Isle. A choice of gourmet food and drink, combined with stunning scenery, this is a fantastic day trip with many captivating sites, towns and orchards along the way. We will tour the Wooden Boat Centre at Franklin, where we will see the traditional methods of boat building - which are still being taught - and learn about iconic Tasmanian timbers. Lunch will be at Peppermint Bay - which is renown for its fresh Tasmanian produce, seafood and ever changing menu.

The Dark Mofo Winter Feast continues tonight or head to one of the amazing restaurants at Salamanca or in the city.
